The King

The skelton of this deer was found on the bank of the James River in Buckingham County. It looked like the skelton of a grown cow – all except the rack. It has a 23 inch spread with 32 points.

Jack Mayberry, pictured above holding the mount, of Spout Spring, bought it from the boy who found it and by using the hide from another deer mounted it. Jack and his wife have been mounting deer for twenty years. He has been hunting them for 30 years and says he has never seen one like this one before. "The King" now hangs in his living room. Who knows, he might get a shot at its brother this year.

Eight Days Remain For ASC Nominations

Appomattox County farmers have only eight more days to nominate candidates for Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) community committeemen.

"It's easy to do," said J. P. Alvis, Jr., Chairman of the Appomatox County ASC Committee. "Each candidate is nominated by a petition which has to be signed by at least three eligible voters. Each petition may name only one nominee. The petition may be on any sheet of paper. No special form is required. Included in the petition must be a statement that the candidate will serve if elected. Eligible farmers may sign as many petitions as they wish."

So far three petitions have been filed at the County ASCS Office, Appomattox, Va. Closing for nominations is October 27. Election date is December 6.

The three ASC committeemen elected by mail ballots for each ASC community will assist in administering ASCS farm programs.

Appomattox County farmers will also choose two alternate committeemen in the election. Alternatess serve if a community committeeman resigns, or can no longer serve in the position.

"Most farmers are eligible to be ASC community committee candidates," stated Mr. Alvis. "Anyone, under 70 years old, a resident of the county, and eligible to participate in ASCS programs may be nominated."

When nominations close on October 27, if six or more candidates have been nominated in each community, the petitions will be reviewed for validity by J. N. Jennings, County ASCS Executive Director. If fewer than six nominations have been made, each ASC community committee now in office will add the appropriate number of names before the slate is reviewed by the ASC County Committee.

Anyone eligible for nomination otherwise cannot be declared ineligible because of race, color, creed, sex, or national origin.

Candidates who are eligible will receive a letter confirming this from the County ASC Committee no later than November 16. Any candidate ruled ineligible will be so notified and may appeal the decision to the County Committee within 15 days.
